

July 24, 2002

Chapter 2

What Exactly Is It to Make a Moral Judgment? – An Ontology of Morality

[URL: Chapter2]

Introduction

- I On Part II (“The Interpersonal: Relating Face to Face”)
- II On the Present Chapter

The Problem of the Right

- I The Good and the Right
- II Case Study: Ethics vs. Morality in the Controversy over Gay Rights
- III Implications for the Right of the Unprovability of the Good

How Did You Get in Here? – Empathy and the Representation of the Other

- I Why Empathize?
- II A Solipsistic, Relativistic Morality?
- III Morality As Introjection
- IV Case Study: The Moral Status of Praise, Blame, Reward, Revenge, Shame, and Guilt
- V Morality As Cognitive Accomplishment
- VI Morality and Authenticity
- VII Empathy vs. Projection / Anthropomorphism

Case Study: Our Relationships with Animals and Other Moral Patients – and Rocks?

- I Happy and Me: The Possibility of Nonlinguistic Agreements
- II More Animals: Counseling Charlie’s Cat
- III More Animals: The Tellington-Touch Method
- IV Relating to Tigers: Empathy Without Reciprocity; Morality Not an Agreement
- V Anthropomorphization and Empathy: Is It All Just an Illusion?
- VI Relating to My Late Father
- VII Relating to Rocks?
- VIII The Morality of Cannibalism
- IX Empathy with the Fetus?
- X Conclusion

A Summary Formulation of the Ways of Relating Perspective: The Concepts of “Ways of Relating” and the Relational Principle

- I Ways of Relating
- II The Relational Principle
- III The Issue of False Sincerity
- IV The Agreement Problem and the Acceptance of the Other as Part of One’s Moral Universe
  - A The Acceptance of the Other
  - B The Agreement Problem
    - 1 The Limits of Empathy
    - 2 Decisions Must Be Made Willy-Nilly
- V Realism and Reciprocity

Coming to Agreement in a First Moment of Moral Judgment

- I The First Moment
- II The Ways of Relating Perspective and the Utilitarian Impulse

Are Morality and Authenticity Isomorphic?

- I xx

The Problem of Evil, Demons, and Moral Monsters

- I Defining Evil
- II The Undecidability of Evil’s Existence
  - A Origins within the Other of Behavior Taken to Show S/He Is Evil
  - B Origins within Oneself of False Perceptions of Evil
- III The WoRP’s Approach: Leaving Evil’s Existence Undecidable
- IV The Usual Approach: Premature Closure of Inquiry and the Assumption of Evil
- V Case Study: The Mugger in Law and Order
- VI The Civil Trial vs. Mutual Responsibility in a Shared Moral Universe

Why Be Moral? The Motivation Problem

- I xx