SCHOLARSHIPS, AND HONORS PROGRAM

Preparing for study at the University of Minnesota Duluth

All students planning studies¹ in baccalaureate programs at the University of Minnesota Duluth are expected to complete as a minimum the following courses either while in grades 9-12 or at an accredited postsecondary institution.²

1. FOUR YEARS OF ENGLISH, with emphasis on writing, including instruction in reading and speaking skills and in literary understanding and appreciation;
2. THREE YEARS OF MATHEMATICS, including one year each of elementary algebra, geometry, and intermediate algebra;
3. THREE YEARS OF SCIENCE, including one year each of biological and physical science;
4. TWO YEARS OF A SINGLE SECOND LANGUAGE;
5. THREE YEARS OF SOCIAL STUDIES, including U.S. history and geography.

We strongly recommend that students also include visual and performing arts courses and computer skills courses in their college preparatory program.

These requirements are considered minimum preparation for bachelor's degree programs. Individual colleges may also require additional preparation as appropriate.

Colleges may admit some students to bachelor's degree programs who have not met these requirements. The method of meeting these requirements after admission will be determined on a case-by-case basis; students may be required to take additional course work.

¹Students who graduated from high school before 1987 are not expected to meet the requirements.

²These minimum preparation requirements are considered along with performance criteria (i.e., high school rank, ACT Assessment Plus Writing or SAT test scores, and previous postsecondary course work) in determining admissibility.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH

UMD is dedicated to bringing the highest quality of education within the reach of every person who has a desire to pursue it. To help meet the rising costs of higher education, UMD annually awards more than $86 million in assistance to about 76 percent of its student body.

Almost all students who show the need for assistance will receive some kind of financial aid. Therefore, no prospective student should hesitate to apply for admission to UMD because of financial circumstances.

The key to receiving financial aid is applying early and exploring all possible sources. These include federal, state, local, and university financial aid programs as well as private sources.

UMD offers students a combination of gift (scholarship and grant) and self-help (loan and job) assistance. The total amount of aid awarded is based on individual needs and the resources of both the student and the student's parents.

HOW TO APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID

One application, the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), is used to apply for federal, state, and university aid.

High school seniors may obtain the FAFSA filing materials from their high school counselors. Applicants may also obtain filing materials from the UMD Office of Admissions or from FAFSA Express online at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

The FAFSA form should be filed as soon as possible after the previous year's tax returns are completed, preferably by March 31.

The FAFSA allows educational institutions to determine the relative financial strength of the family and set the amount of aid for which a student is eligible.

In addition to completing the FAFSA, transfer students must cancel financial aid at their previous institution prior to attendance at UMD.

Do not mail the completed FAFSA to the UMD Financial Aid Office.

The forms must be mailed to the processor, or filed electronically.

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

Grants

Federal Pell Grant The Pell Grant provides undergraduates with non-repayable gifts ranging from $890 to $4,730 annually. Awards are made on the basis of documented need.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG)

State of Minnesota Grant The state grant is available to graduates of Minnesota high schools who demonstrate financial need. The grants are non-repayable and renewable for eight semesters of college study. Students must be residents of Minnesota.

Founders Free Tuition Program The University of Minnesota Duluth Founders Free Tuition Program is a special award program that benefits qualified incoming freshman and transfer students from Minnesota who meet certain financial need requirements. Eligible students are guaranteed grant and gift assistance in an amount at least equal to tuition and required fees on the UMD campus. This program supports all new incoming freshman and transfer students who are Minnesota residents and who are eligible for federal Pell grants.

College Work-Study Program Full-time students with exceptional financial need may be eligible for part-time employment. Students may work to the extent of their award. Pay rates depend on the position.

Miscellaneous Employment Enrolled students may review job postings for campus and off-campus part-time employment.

LOANS

Federal Carl D. Perkins Loan The Carl D. Perkins is a long-term, low-interest loan repayable beginning nine months after the student graduates or leaves college. Applicants for the Carl D. Perkins loan must be enrolled at least half-time.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Programs The University of Minnesota Duluth participates in the Federal Direct Student Loan Program. Students registered at least half-time may qualify for a low-interest loan through either the William D. Ford Federal Direct Subsidized Loan program or the William D. Ford Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan program. Students can borrow up to $5,500 for the first year, $6,500 for the second year, and up to $7,500 for the third and fourth years of undergraduate study.

Federal Direct PLUS Loan PLUS Loans enable parents with good credit to borrow for each child who is enrolled at least half-time and is a dependent student. The yearly loan limit is the cost of education minus any estimated financial aid for which the student is eligible.

Student Educational Loan Fund (SELF) Students enrolled at least half-time are eligible to apply for SELF loans. The maximum amount that an undergraduate may borrow is $7,500 per year. Financial need is not a requirement. However, applicants must complete the FAFSA. This loan requires a credit-worthy cosigner and accrues interest while the borrower is in school.

Assistance from the following sources requires the filing of a separate application form. Eligible students should contact the appropriate agencies for information and application materials.

American Indian Students Students who can establish need and proof of one-fourth or more Indian ancestry may be eligible for Bureau of Indian Affairs or Minnesota State Indian Scholarship funding. The Minnesota Chippewa Tribe offers assistance to its tribally enrolled members.
