

Department of Biology Seminar

University of Minnesota Duluth

2007-2008 Series

What We Have Learned from Hibernating Mammals

Dr. Matt Andrews

2007-2008 Recipient of the Chancellor's Award for Distinguished Research
Department Head, Department of Biology, UMD

Hosted by: Vince Magnuson
Monday, December 10th
3:15 P.M.

150 Chemistry

Award presentation will be followed by the research seminar. A reception will be held in the Griggs Center following the seminar.

For special accommodations, call the biology office at 726-6262.

To visit with this seminar speaker, please contact the host.

For a complete listing of biology seminars please view www.d.umn.edu/biology.

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.