WHITEFACE RESERVOIR
Public Recreation

Map Key
- Dam
- X-Country Ski Trail
- Snowshoe/Backcountry Ski Trail
- Snowmobile Trail
- RV Camping
- Campsite
- Group Campsite
- ADA Accessibility
- Boat Launch
- Parking
- Canoe portage/access
- Shore Fishing
- Environmental Learning Center

St. Louis River Hydroelectric Project
FERC Project No. 2360
St. Louis River Watershed
87.6 Megawatts Total Capacity

WHITEFACE RESERVOIR
FAST FACTS
- Max. Depth: 35 ft.
- Size: 5,440 acres
- Miles of Mainland Shoreline: 31.5 miles
- River System(s): Whiteface River (tributary to St. Louis River)
- Dominant Game Fish Species:
  - Walleye
  - Black Crappie
  - Northern Pike
  - Yellow Perch
- Camping Opportunities:
  - U.S. Forest Service Whiteface Reservoir Campground
- Boat Access:
  - Whiteface Dam Public Access
  - U.S. Forest Service Boat Launch

For more information about Minnesota Power's hydroelectric projects, Boulder Lake Environmental Learning Center, Adopt an Island Program, or the ShoreLand Traditions lease program, please visit: www.mpland.com