Prehistoric Cultures Enthusiasts . . .

Your scores and your final grade are now in your Moodle Gradebook folder. You should have scores for all Forum postings that were entered on time, or by the end of the announced amnesty periods, or by the mutually agreed upon completion date(s). And you should have scores for all of the other materials you have submitted.

The “Adjustment Curve” for the semester is 130 points for folks who took the final exam or who have made arrangements for an Incomplete (I).

The UMD Grading and Transcripts Policy was newly defined on 3 January 2011 and that, as earlier mentioned, this course does its best to follow those guidelines. For a direct comparison of your Prehistoric Cultures scores with that UMD Policy have a look at the materials on the course “Grading Policies” WebPage at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth1602/pcgrades.html#gradingpolicies>. The Prehistoric Cultures “Curve” is on-line at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth1602/pcgrades.html#curve>.

If you are interested, some additional philosophical observations on project and exam and Forum grades, and the like, are on-line at "The Strike Zone" and "The Curve" and "Grading Gymnastics . . ."

I expect that the Prehistoric Cultures grades will be officially submitted to the Registrar on Thursday. In the meantime, have a look at and review your Moodle Gradebook folder <https://moodle.umn.edu/>; and if you have questions and/or comments please let me know.

If you made arrangements for an “Incomplete” (I), then that will be the grading notation submitted to the Registrar (for the official record) not the one that currently appears in your Moodle Gradebook folder.

Our course developer, says that your Prehistoric Cultures course materials will be kept on-line for two years. So you should have easy access to your materials in at least the near future. And most of the course materials are also always on-line and up-to-date at the Prehistoric Cultures public WebSite at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth1602/#title>.

I will keep all of the exams and exam materials until Candlemas, also known as Groundhog's Day. And if Punxsutawney Phil in Pennsylvania, sees his shadow on that day (February 2nd), I'll keep the exams another six weeks beyond February 2nd.

It was very nice having you in class. Thanks for choosing Prehistoric Cultures.

Good luck to you in the future. Keep in touch. If you're in the Cina neighborhood stop by and say hello; if nothing else, you can always get some animal crackers.

Have a great life. And enjoy your further explorations into Prehistoric Cultures.

Best Regards and Best Wishes,

Tim Roufs
