1 April 2018

Peoples and Cultures of Europe Week 12

Happy Easter!

for those of you celebrating Eastern Easter today.

No f2f class in Cina 214 this week:
Tuesday, 3 April 2018
or Thursday, 5 April 2018

I will be at the Applied Anthropology Meetings in Philadelphia, PA

Focus: “Sustainable Futures”

So this week is an excellent time to catch up

It's also time to start putting your in-class Presentation together,

if you haven't already started. Useful information on Presentations can be found at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth3635/cepresentations.html#title>.

Sign up for your Class Presentation Time

(See "Presentations" in your "Syllabus" or "Assignments" folder)

A major part of this course is your research project—not just for the points, but because researching a topic you are interested in and presenting your findings to others, and then writing the results up as a formal paper, is one of the best ways to learn things. (Lectures, as it turns out, research suggests, are one of the worst ways—keeping in mind that one must separate “learning” from the “perception of learning.”) So this week be sure to spend some time working on your Paper and Presentation. (Remember that your Presentation is a “work in progress” report on your paper.)

If I can be of help with your project, please let me know.

(Right now there are enough time slots for everyone to sign up. Do not wait until the last minute, or until after the Presentation Sessions have gone by, and then argue that you cannot give your presentation because there is not a time available.)

The class Presentations WebPage, if you would like to review, is at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth3635/cepresentations.html#title>.

If you have any questions right now, please do not hesitate to post them on the Course “Chat”, or e-mail troufs@d.umn.edu, or stop in before or after class across the hall in Cina 215 [\[map\]](#).

Best Regards,

Tim Roufs
