Summary / Review

Final Exam Notes

The Final Exam will be as described, and like the Midterm exam, it is “open book.” There should be no surprises. The cut-to-the-chase bottom line of the exam . . .

The Peoples and Cultures of Europe Final Exam is scheduled for 10:00-11:55, Thursday, 4 May 2017, in Cina Hall 214

However, you may take the exam earlier during Final Exam week. Details in class on Thursday.

The CE Final Exam Live Chat will be

Wednesday, 3 May 2017 from 8:00-9:00

Sign in next week on Moodle in the Week 16 Panel.

Other details on the Final Exam are at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth3635/ceexams_final.html#title>.

REM: Bring your Laptop to the Exam

Moodle Exams (and everything else on Moodle) works best with a Firefox browser. If you do not have a Firefox browser on your laptop, download one (it's free).

On the Final Exam you must answer the four (4) questions on the final randomly generated by Moodle from the pool of questions put together from the study questions on the annotated Week 14 Moodle wiki. Each question is worth up to 100 points each. They may include . . .

- A current affairs question
- And questions made up from the Study Questions in the Final Exam Question Wiki, which you can find at Week 14 Moodle

Found at:  Wiki: Contributions to the Final Exam

So use the Annotated Wiki Contributed Question List from Week 14 as a Study Guide. Be sure to note my comments and other additions.

Course Evaluations

This week we will do a brief in-class evaluation, which is a supplement to the one which our IT folks sent to you on-line.

Please complete both of them carefully and thoughtfully as they are very important to this class, and to the Department and College.

This week we reflect, re-view, and review. We'll step back and reflect on the semester, and make some suggestions for next time around. This week we ask you to reflect on the course itself, and tell us what you think by evaluating the course and its parts. Please take time to respond to those requests. Your responses are very useful and helpful to us, and to the operations of the Department and University. We look to you for suggestions for improvement in the future, and various administrators look to and at the results for program and performance evaluations and for the future planning of course offerings. Course evaluations are one of the few places where you can have a real influence on how the University operates in the future.

Re-Visit, Re-View Kypseli

As mentioned Week 1 we'll re-view the film Kypseli: Women and Men apart—a Divided Reality to see what you see this time through. So before Thursday review your original Case Study paper on the Kypseli from Day 02. Your re-flections on your re-view, Kypseli Paper II, are Due Saturday, 29 April 2017.

Term Papers

If you haven't received your Term Paper back with my comments, you should be receiving it shortly. It takes quite a while to read those and make careful and extensive comments on them, so please be just a little patient.

In the next two weeks I get to read and evaluate several hundred final exams, term papers, forum postings, and final projects. As you can imagine, that takes quite a bit of time—so have patience. I'll be working at them pretty much continuously for the next two-and-a-half weeks. But, having said that, if you have any questions about any of those, please feel free to e-mail: <mailto:troufs@d.umn.edu>.

Your Assignments and Activities listings are available in the Week 15 Block of your Moodle folder, including . . .

Forum: My Favorite Anth of Europe . . . And My Least Favorite (Due Friday of Exam Week, 5 May 2017)

Kypseli Paper II (Due End of Week 15, Saturday, 29 April 2017) Assignment

As mentioned last week, Stacy Schweikert stschwe@tcd.umn.edu from Information Technology Systems & Services sent you an Invitation to Participate in an online Course Evaluation.

Evaluations are important to me, the Department Head, and the Dean, as well as everyone in our Department.

Please fill the online Course Evaluation out carefully.

Evaluations are anonymous, and will not be seen by the instructor until final grades for this course have been recorded.

Thanks.

If you have any questions, post them on the Moodle "QUICKMAIL", "Messenger", or e-mail troufs@d.umn.edu, or stop in before or after class across the hall at Cina 215.

This week's salutes go to . . . you . . .—for hanging in there.

Best Regards,

Tim Roufs
