1.0 What's Happening Week 7?

One big event of the week is the Midterm Exam which will be available this week from 12:01 a.m. Monday to 11:59 Saturday, 19 - 24 February 2024.

After the exam we're headed off to Turkey where we'll meet Elif, a 12-year-old Turkish girl, who will tell us about her Sufi spiritual journey, up-until-so-far. Elif is part of the Mevlevi Brotherhood, known as "Whirling Dervishes" in the Western world. They are a part of Sufi/Mystic traditional Islam.

Turkey is a transcontinental country having 3.02% of its land in Europe, with the remainder in Asia. As Turkey overall is the thirty-eighth largest country in the world in land mass (302,535 mi<sup>2</sup>), the part of Turkey that is geographically in Europe (9,175 mi<sup>2</sup>) is larger than thirteen other European countries. For example, all of Slovenia (7,827 mi<sup>2</sup>) is smaller than just the European lands of Turkey.

And speaking of Turkey and the Middle East, we'll finish off our adventures of the week having a three-minute look at 5,000 years of the Imperial history of the Middle East—which generally and importantly very much included parts of Europe.

After all of that, it's back to your Class Project, to finish your Project Abstract and Working Bibliography which are due by Saturday evening.

A “Master Text” is a work (video or print item or research technique or theoretical approach) that helped set the stage for what came later and which in one or more ways influenced the development of a discipline or sub-discipline. Kypseli, for e.g., is one. Ernestine Friedl's Vasilika, for e.g., is another one.

A Brief Review of

Turkey and the Ottoman Empire

Moors and other Arab Influences, A.D. 711 - A.D. 1492

Ottoman Influences A.D. 1517 –

Thursday we’ll have a quick look at (literally) “Imperial History of the Middle East: 5000 Years of History in 90 seconds.” It’s short—135 seconds (things are not always as advertised). Pay special attention to what is happening within the borders of modern-day Europe.

Imperial History of the Middle East: 5000 Years of History in 90 seconds (actually, 3 minutes)

When you watch the presentation “Imperial History of the Middle East: 5000 Years of History in 90 seconds” pay special attention to what is happening within the borders of modern-day Europe. (It’s short—135 seconds (things are not always as advertised). ISIS (Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham) declared itself a “Caliphate” 29 June 2014 under the name under the name "Islamic State". The U.S.A. and its allies, and Russia and their allies, continue the militaristic imperial history (sometimes through “proxies”), extending the 3000-year-old-pattern.

In short, it is difficult to understand much of modern-day Europe, and modern-day Europeans, without understanding the earlier historical influences of the various Arab groups. You have already begun to see that in the Greek villages.

So we’ll continue to have a look at the historical framework for the course by looking at one of the early major influences in many parts of Europe (and beyond)—Ottoman, Moorish, and other Turkish Empires. Arabs controlled much of the Iberian Peninsula (Spain, Portugal, Andorra, Gibraltar, and part of France) starting in the 8th century (A.D. 711) and ending just as Columbus was “discovering” America in 1492.

With a strong presence in Europe of almost 800 years, the Arabs had a considerable influence in the Mediterranean in general and the Iberian Peninsula in particular. Even after the Reconquista of Spain and the other countries the Ottomans exerted considerable influence over, including Sicily, much of the Arab influence in the eastern Mediterranean and Southeastern Europe continued.

That influence continues through the present-day. And influence from that neck of the woods may become stronger if/when Turkey is admitted to the EU.
