EVENTS

art EVENTS

TWEED MUSEUM
EXHIBITS

The exhibition, "You and Yours: A Curatorial Project on the Theme of Family" by Patricia Briggs will be on display through Oct. 17.

"Form and Surface: Selections from the Glenn C. Nelson Collection" will be on display through Nov. 7.

"Gilbert Munger: Niagara Falls" will be on display through December.

"Variations on a Theme" will be on display through December.

"Entertaining the Gods: Yarn Paintings of the Mexican Huichol" will be on display through Dec. 20.

"Our Own State Fair: Artists of Minnesota from the TMA Collection" will continue through Feb. 13.

"In 3D: Selections From the Collection" will continue through March 25.

Works from the Richard and Dorothy Rawlings Nelson Collection of American Indian Art continues at the Tweed.

Student shows will be featured throughout the year: Adam Rosenthal from Sept. 21-26, Alexander Hanson from Sept. 28-Oct. 3, Lydia Kepulis and Melissa Kirchoff from Oct. 5-10, Steve Read from Oct. 12-17, Chad Lieske from Oct. 19-24, Rachel Heisler from Oct. 26-31, Gina Gleason from Nov. 2-7, Lorena Sell and Tara Mathison from Nov. 9-14, Shawntelle Bates and Amara Barthelemy from Nov. 16-21, Michelle Bennett from Nov. 30-Dec. 5, Amber Burns from Dec. 7-12, and Maria Witham from Dec. 14-19.

For Tweed Museum information, go to http://www.d.umn.edu/tma, contact tma@d.umn.edu or call 218-726-8222.

music EVENTS

All events will be held in Weber Music Hall.

The Ninth Annual Weber Concert, presented Oct. 13 at 7:30 pm, features the Symphony Orchestra & Chamber Orchestra, University Singers, Concert Chorale.

Trumpet players Tom Pfotenhauer and David Cooper will present a Guest Artist Recital on Oct. 19 at 7:30 pm.

Laura Young, solo classical guitar, will present a Guest Artist Concert on Oct. 22 at 7:30 pm.

Choral Ensembles presents the Concert Chorale, University Singers, and Chamber Singers as they premiere a new work by Irish composer, Rhona Clarke, with guest conductor Dr. Marion Doherty Hayden on Oct. 24 at 3 pm.

Senior High Honor Choir concert will be held on Oct. 25 at 4 pm.

Nicolas Mallarte, piano, will present the Ovation Guest Artist Series Concert on Oct. 26 at 7:30 pm. Volcanic ash prevented this performance from being given last April.

Senior High Honor Orchestra concert will be held on Oct. 29 at 4 pm.

For more information, call 726-8561, or see http://www.d.umn.edu/music.
theatre/dance EVENTS

Rodgers & Hammersteins' South Pacific will be performed on Oct. 21, 23, 27, 30 at 7:30 pm and Oct. 24 at 2 pm on the Marshall Performing Arts Center mainstage.

For info, call the UMD Box Office at 726-8561 or see http://www.d.umn.edu/theatre.

athletic EVENTS

CROSS COUNTRY

The Men's and Women's Cross Country teams will hold a meet, the UMD Pine Hill Invitational & Alumni Day, on Oct. 9 in Carlton, MN. The men will start at 10 am and the women will start at 10:45 am.

FOOTBALL

The UMD Bulldog football team will play against Winona State for the Hall of Fame Game at 6:05 pm on Oct. 9, UMD's Homecoming game against the University of Mary will be held at 1:05 pm on Oct. 16, and Senior Days begins at 1:05 pm on Oct. 30 against St. Cloud State. All games will be played at Malosky Stadium.

SOCCER

The Soccer team will play University of Mary at 1 pm on Oct. 9, Northern State at 1 pm on Oct. 10, and Bemidji State at 3 pm on Oct. 22. All games will be played at Malosky Stadium.

VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball team will play Upper Iowa at 7 pm on Oct. 15, Winona State at 4 pm on Oct. 22, and Concordia-St. Paul at 7 pm on Oct. 23. All games will be held in Romano Gym.

For more information, contact the UMD Athletic Office at 726-7518 or see http://www.umdbulldogs.com.

EVENTS, lectures, workshops

GEOLOGY EVENTS

Shoufa Lin, professor of Structural Geology & Tectonics, University of Waterloo, will present "Synchronous vertical and horizontal tectonism in the Neoarchean and implications for gold mineralization: evidence from the Superior craton" on Thurs., Sept. 23 in LSci 175 at 3:30 pm.

Mike Berndt, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Division of Lands and Minerals, will present "Sulfur and oxygen isotope composition of dissolved sulfate in the St. Louis River watershed, North East Minnesota" on Thurs. Oct. 7 in LSci 175 at 3:30 pm. For info, contact geol@d.umn.edu.

VISUAL LECTURE SERIES

Angélica J. Afanador Pujol, a scholar of Pre-Columbian and Early Colonial Art of the Americas, will speak at 6 pm on Thurs., Sept. 23, in Montague 70. She explores a variety of media (ceramics, murals, prints, architecture, and manuscript illuminations) to show how the indigenous people of the Americas have represented themselves and been represented by others.

Patricia Briggs, Guest curator — Tweed Museum of Art, will speak at 6 pm on Tues., Oct. 5, in Montague 70.

Jim Gaylord, will give a presentation on painting and drawing at 6 pm on Tues., Oct. 26, in Montague 70.

For information contact the Department of Art and Design, 218-726-8225.

ALWORTH INSTITUTE EVENTS

"Life with the Maasai Tribe of Tanzania," a brown bag lunch with John Kowalczyn, professor of public health and program coordinator, First Year Experience & Students in Transition, will be held on Thurs. Sept. 30, at noon in the Library Rotunda.

"On the Ground: U.S. Policy in Afghanistan, Pakistan and Iraq," an Alworth Lecture with Thomas Hanson, former U.S. Foreign Service Officer and Alworth Institute Diplomat in Residence, will be held on Wed., Oct. 6 at 7 pm in the Library Rotunda.

"Pura Vida: Costa Rica Discovered," a brown bag lunch with Deborah Good, a student personnel coordinator, UMD International Education Office, will be held on Thurs. Oct. 7 at 12 pm in the Library Rotunda.

"Friluftsliv and Allemansrätt: Swedish Nature-based Outdoor Recreation and Universal Access to the Natural Landscape" a brown bag lunch with Tom Berry, instructor from the UMD Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, will take place at noon on Oct. 21 in the Library Rotunda.

"The Wedding March: Stories from our Pre-Monsoon Wedding in Bangalore" a brown ag lunch with Rebecca de Souza, assistant professor of the communication department, and Adam Pine, assistant professor of the geography department, will take place at noon on Oct. 28 in the Library Rotunda.

For info, visit: http://www.d.umn.edu/alworth.

HEAD START AND CIVIL RIGHTS
Zelma Williams Croom will give a presentation about establishing the first kindergarten and the first Head Start program for black families in Holmes County, Mississippi beginning in 1964. The event, "Head Start and Civil Rights: Educating Children in 1960s Mississippi," will be held on Thurs., Sept. 30. The reception will begin at 5:30 pm, and the presentation will start at 6 pm in Griggs Center. Croom, now from Cleveland, Ohio, was among the first group of local young adults who became staff at the Holmes County Community Center at Mileston. The teachers were recruited by Civil Rights Movement outside workers, Sue [Lorenzi] Sojourner now of Duluth and her activist husband. The early lives of Croom and the other teachers were framed by poverty, abuse, and Jim Crow laws. Croom became a leader in the Civil Rights Movement battling for Head Start, voting rights, and school integration. She has remained an activist ever since. For info contact: 218-726-6236, dmccarth@d.umn.edu or 218-726-8996, creitan@d.umn.edu.

EDWIN EDDY LECTURE
The Eddy lecture, "Clinical Ethics and Decision-Making in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology," presented by Helen Sharp, Ph.D., CCC-SLP, will be held on Sat., Oct. 2 from 8:30 am-4 pm in Bohannon 90.

This lecture will focus on the application of biomedical ethics to the practice of speech-language pathology and audiology. The goal of this discussion is to provide participants with the tools to think through clinical ethical decision-making around such issues as informed consent and refusal of treatment; assessment of patient/client capacity to participate in decision-making; and how decisions are made when the patient/client is unable to make decisions including application of advance directives; and the issues specific to decision-making for children. For info, contact Jena Gordon at gordo244@d.umn.edu.

BOULDER LAKE EVENTS
The Fifth Annual Agate Festival will be held Sat., Oct. 9 from 1-3:30 pm.

A dutch oven baking demo will be held Oct. 12 from 6-7:30 pm.

The talk "How to Use a GPS Receiver for Loggers, Foresters, Landowners, Sportsman, and Geocachers" will be held on Oct. 23, from 9 am-noon; $40 per person

An aquatic invasive species talk will be held on Oct. 27 from 7-8 pm.

All events require pre-registration. For information visit www.boulderlake.org, email jdgeissl@d.umn.edu, or call at 218-721-3731.

PLANETARIUM
The Marshall W. Alworth Planetarium holds free public shows at the planetarium every Wed. and Fri. evening at 7 pm. Astronomy Lessons from Star Wars will be presented on Sept. 29. Stargazing Tonight will be presented on Oct. 1 and Oct. 6. October is planet month at the planetarium. Shows in October will focus on a particular planet. Private shows are available by appointment for groups of 10 or more. See list of shows at http://www.d.umn.edu/planet/programs.

special EVENTS
COACH OF THE YEAR VOTING BEGINS
Voting has begun for the Liberty Mutual Football Coach of the Year Contest, the only contest that recognizes coaching excellence both on and off the field. UMD Coach Bob Nielson, who came very close last year, will be a favorite. Four coaches will be awarded $50,000 for charity and $20,000 for their alumni associations. NEW this year: an additional $10,000 prize awarded to the alumni association that rallies the most votes for their coach, win or lose. Vote for Bob every day through Dec. 4 at http://www.coachoftheyear.com. Check out the video a UMD student made: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n2nNmRC95hU.

APPLE CIDER
"Cider Pressing Heritage Apples" will be held from 1-4 pm on Sun., Sept. 26, at the Old Orchard on the UMD Farm, the Research and Field Studies Center, 4709 Jean Duluth Road. Visitors will have the chance to enjoy the orchard, gather apples, use the presses, and drink fresh cider. There will be guided tours of the orchard discussing its historic role in developing apple varieties in Minnesota. For info contact sustain@d.umn.edu.

E-FEST
E-Fest, a career fair for those seeking employment and internship opportunities in the fields of engineering, computer science, math and science will take place on Wed., Sept. 29 from 10 am-2 pm in the Kirby Student Center Ballroom. On-campus interviews in conjunction with E-Fest will take place on Sept. 29 and 30. Employers will be seeking candidates for internships and full-time positions, as well as promoting their company. Students register for the fair at the door. Sponsored by: Tau Beta Pi and UMD Career Services. For info contact Mary Gallet at mgallet@d.umn.edu.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE DAY
Join the Office of Civic Engagement on Sept. 23 for Make a Difference Day. The activities include a Community Involvement Fair in the Kirby Ballroom from 9 am-2 pm, On Campus Service Activities in the Garden Room 3-4:30 pm and a showing of the documentary Between a Rock and a Heart Place in the Garden room from 5-7 pm. Contact Dylan Savall at 218-726-8645.

MULTICULTURAL EVENTS
The film, 9500 Liberty, will be shown at noon on Sept. 21 in KSC 2,73. The film, features a glimpse of the new immigration policy in Prince William County, Virginia. It is sponsored by Latino/Chicano Student Programs and Latino/Chicano Student Association.

The film, When Worlds Collide, will be shown at noon on Oct. 12 in KSC 273. It illuminates the origin of today's Latino culture in the United States through the untold story of what happened in the Americas after Columbus. It is sponsored by Latino/Chicano Student Programs and Latino/Chicano Student Association, and WDSE WRPT Public Educational Television.

The film, A Closer Look: Developmental Disabilities, will be shown at 3:30 pm on Sept. 22 in KSC 268. It is sponsored by Access For All.

The film, Train Your Brain: The Other Sister, will be shown at 3:30 pm on Sept. 29 in KSC 273B.

A Brown Bag lunch "Ending Violence Against Women" with Ed Heisler will be held on Sept. 29 at noon in KSC 268. It is sponsored by Women Resource and Action Center (WRAC).

“LGBT Elders” are gathering at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in the Hillside Room. Sept. 30 at 4 pm. Contact Kathleen at 715-394-3611 for more information. It is Sponsored by UMD GLBT Services.

The Queer History Month Display will be located in the Multicultural Center from Oct. 1-20. Sponsored by UMD GLBT Services and Queer and Allied Student Union. For info contact Angie Nicholas at 218-726-7300.

MARKET DAY IN THE PLAZA
UMD Market Day in the Plaza is held every Wed. through Sept. 29 from 1:30-4:30 pm, rain or shine, and features a farmer’s market, live music, and artist booths. UMD Stores offers specials during the Market that include 1/2-price fountain pop and hot beverages and 20% off one regularly priced item when using the black UMD reusable bags. (Some exclusions apply.) Visit www.umdstores.com.

HEALTH SERVICES EVENTS
UMD Health Services will offer Annual Depression Screening on Oct. 6, in the Kirby Ballroom from 1-3 pm. Visitors can watch a video, fill out a screening tool, and meet with a counselor one-on-one. For info contact Health Services at 218-726-8155.

GLENSHEEN
Glensheen’s third annual Halloween Living Literature will be held from Oct. 21-23. This year they’re partnering with UMD’s Theater and English departments and presenting Edgar Allan Poe’s “The Fall of the House of Usher.” The evening includes the performance, a flashlight tour of Glensheen mansion, and guided discussion with refreshments. The performance venue is small and there is limited seating.

The historic Congdon estate, Glensheen mansion, is open for tours daily from 9:30 am-3:30 pm For more information and prices for events, visit http://www.d.umn.edu/glen/, call 218-726-8910, or email glen@d.umn.edu.

EVENTS, faculty and staff
FALL 2010 IDS WORKSHOPS
Join IDS for these workshops: "Noon Nugget: Bolstering Student Engagement with Self-Interest" held from noon-1 pm on Sept. 29 in KSC 268; "Bringing the World to Your Classroom: Best Practices" held from 1-2:30 pm on Oct. 13 in KSC 268; "20-minute Mentor Film Festival" held from 1-3:30 pm on Oct. 25 in KSC 268; "Creating Super Surveys" held from 10-11:30 am on Nov 12 in KSC 268; and "Just Us: Conversations on Issues and Isms" held from noon-1:30 pm on Nov. 19 in EduE 142. Register with Jason Ellis at jellis2@d.umn.edu.

JUST US
Just Us is an ongoing training and discussion group for faculty and staff on creating curriculum/programming to address cultural competence, racism, and establishing a more welcoming climate for all faculty, staff, and students. Anyone who's interested in discussing these issues and enhancing their competence in dealing with them is welcome. Sessions take place on a Friday in EduE 142 on: Sept. 24 from 12-1:30 pm, Oct. 29 from 8-9:30 am, Nov. 19 from 12-1:30 pm, and Dec. 10 from 12-1:30 pm. For info, contact lrutherf@d.umn.edu or 726-6207.

TECH TALK PLUS
Tech Talk offers a forum for faculty from all disciplines to discuss uses and abuses of educational technology. All sessions will run from 12-1 pm in EduE 142. The sessions will be held on Wed., Oct. 6; Fri., Oct. 22; Thurs., Nov. 18; and Thurs., Dec. 16. Request to join the alias by emailing LeAne Rutherford at lrutherf@d.umn.edu
UMD ENROLLMENT

Projected freshmen enrollment at UMD this year is 2,830, which includes 2,350 freshman (of which 90 percent live on campus) and 480 transfer students. Projected total enrollment is estimated at 11,825 students, up nearly 2 percent from last year.

MSW AWARD

The UMD Department of Social Work announced the first recipient of the MSW Field Supervisor Civic Engagement/Outstanding Service Award — Tracy Litman, MSW, LICSW. Tracy, a 1993 alumna of the MSW Program, was nominated by two MSW program alumni, Shelly Plude, MSW, and Laura Hoffarth, MSW. Tracy provided field supervision to both Shelly and Laura, as well as other MSW students over the last 16 years.

INDIAN CHILD WELFARE

The third annual Summer Institute in American Indian Child Welfare was held at Leech Lake Reservation, in July 2010. The UMD Department of Social Work program, the Center for Regional and Tribal Child Welfare Studies, sponsored the program to help tribal child welfare workers, administrators, and students develop cutting-edge, tribal-based, child welfare practice skills.

FASD CERTIFICATE

UMD’s Continuing Education (CE) now offers a certificate program in Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD). This new program is a three-course series and is offered online. The series is designed to be completed in one year. It may be taken as an undergraduate certificate or as a graduate certificate. For info, contact: email Suzan Gonia, or call 218-726-8149.

KUMD NEWS

KUMD presents the Fall Membership Drive from Sept. 24-Oct. 3. All staff, students, and faculty are welcome to join the community in volunteering to answer phones at this crucial time. The event involves lots of people, food, and fun. Email Ira at isalmela@kumd.org to receive information about a short orientation during the week of Sept. 20.

faculty/staff NEWS

Vis/A/Vis: a University of Minnesota faculty exhibition includes the work of 12 UMD faculty including: Alison Aune (painting), Steve Bardolph (photography), David Bowen (sculpture), Gloria DeFilipps Brush (photography) James Klueg (ceramics), Janice Kmetz (photography), Beth Koch (graphic design), Ryuta Nakajima (painting), Robert Repinski (printmaking), Joellyn Rock (archival prints), Eun-Kyung Suh (sculpture), and Mariana Waisman (graphic design). The exhibition runs through Oct. 7 at the Katherine E. Nash Gallery, Regis Center for Art; University of Minnesota west bank, 405 21st Avenue South, Minneapolis. Digital images can be found at http://art.umn.edu/press.

David Bowen, associate professor, Department of Art and Design, will have his most recent work, "fly blimps" on display in arttech at The Lab in San Francisco Oct. 9.

The University of Minnesota Alumni Association honored Minnesota Representative Tom Huntley as one of the 2010 Legislators of the Year in Aug. Huntley is UMD professor emeritus in the UMD Medical School.

Jim Klueg, head, Department of Art and Design, will have a solo exhibit, "Weapons of Mass Seduction: Ceramic Work 2001-10" on display at the MacRostie Art Center in Grand Rapids, MN, through the month of September.
Ryuta Nakajima, assistant professor, Department of Art and Design, received a Merit Award for his drawings "Philosophy of Squid #1 and #7", selected for the 2010 Great Lakes Drawing Biannual. This exhibition is held at Ford and University Gallery from Sept. 22-Oct. 25 at Eastern Michigan University and was juried by Hartmut Austen.

NRRI NEWS

Subhash Basak participated in the 2010 Bio-Fuel and Energy Independence Symposium held at the University of Wisconsin Superior on September 2. The Symposium was sponsored by American Science and Technology, UWS, South Dakota State University, Institute of Technology (West Virginia University), and the Argonne National Laboratory.

MN SEA GRANT NEWS

Minnesota Sea Grant is helping the North Central Regional Aquaculture Center (NCRAC) plan and implement a free baitfish workshop on the latest research, production techniques, and fish health information. The workshop is Sept. 21, 2010 at the La Crosse Fish Health Center in Onalaska, Wisconsin.

Minnesota Sea Grant announced that Larissa Herrera, a second-year masters student in the University of Minnesota Water Resources Science program, won the CILER Fellowship Award for 2010-11, which includes a $23,000 graduate stipend. Herrera’s research is on “Developing a diagnostic tool for assessing excessive sediment harm to stream communities.” Her mentor is Valerie Brady, Natural Resources Research Institute and Minnesota Sea Grant’s Research Director.

Minnesota Sea Grant Extension Educators, Jesse Schomberg, John Bilotta and Cindy Hagley, will present their award-winning Watershed Game at NEMO University, (NEMO U) in late September in Portland, Maine. Over 1,000 local decision-makers have been trained in using the game to learn how their decisions effect water resources.

Minnesota Sea Grant is a sponsor of The Working Waterways and Waterfronts National Symposium on Water Access 2010 providing opportunities to learn about successful models and tools around the country and will team up with Wisconsin Sea Grant in presenting an exhibit on collaborative efforts in bi-state ports.

Minnesota Sea Grant’s maritime extension educator, Dale Bergeron, and Wisconsin Sea Grant’s coastal engineer, Gene Clark, co-authored an article in the latest Great Lakes Seaway Review magazine on preparing for coastal hazards using the new “matrix” (Great Lakes Ports and Harbor Infrastructure and Dredging Cost Matrix). The matrix helps coastal communities and maritime interests understand which crucial port and harbor infrastructures are vulnerable to potential climate variation and relates that risk to potential economic impacts.

In collaboration with the National Park Service in Minnesota, Minnesota Sea Grant instated a new position. Their new national park service liaison and AIS specialist, Marte Thabes Kitson, holds a master of science in Biology from UMD. She will further efforts in outreach and education geared toward promoting awareness and preventing the further spread of aquatic invasive species.

PHARMACY NEWS

Grant Anderson, associate professor, presented "Thyroid Hormone Transporters in the Brain" at the Allan-Herndon-Dudley Syndrome and Thyroid Hormone Transporters Symposium during the International Thyroid Congress in Paris, France, in Sept. 2010.

Anika Hartz, assistant professor, presented “Blood-Brain Barrier P-glycoprotein: A New Target for Alzheimer’s Disease?” at the 7th Annual North American ABC Transporter Meeting at the National Cancer Institute in Frederick, Maryland, in Sept. 2010.

umd COMMUNICATION ABOUT CURRENTS:

Questions? Contact Cheryl Reitan and Kathleen McQuillan-Hofmann at 218-726-8996. Mandee Kuglin, Zach Lunderberg, Katherine McQuarter, and Brian Robertson helped edit this issue of Currents. Submit items to Currents, by emailing currents@d.umn.edu.

Currents can be viewed at www.d.umn.edu/currents.

The fall Currents schedule is:
Deadline: Wed., Sept. 29, 2010
  Print Date: Tues., Oct. 5, 2010
  Print Date: Tues., Oct. 19, 2010
  Print Date: Tues., Nov. 2, 2010
Deadline: Wed., Nov. 10, 2010
  Print Date: Tues., Nov. 16, 2010
  Print Date: Tues., Dec. 7, 2010

UMD EVENT PUBLICITY

There are many ways to get publicity for your UMD events: Currents faculty-staff newsletter, the WEB Calendar of Events, Business Announce E-mail, Department Web pages, News Releases, the UMD Home Page, advertisements, producing brochures, and advertising in the Statesman student newspaper. Information and policies can be found at http://www.d.umn.edu/publications/publicizingevents.html.

UMD CALENDER OF EVENTS

Don't forget, public events must be posted on the web calendar and sent to Currents before you can send out a UMD business announce message. For more information, contact Cheryl Reitan at 218-726-8996 or email creitan@d.umn.edu.

SUBSCRIBE TO CURRENTS

Individuals can choose to subscribe for a e-mail or a paper copy of Currents. See this web page for instructions: http://www.d.umn.edu/currents/currentslist.html.