Sexual harassment in any, situation is reprehensible. It subverts the mission of the University, and threatens the careers of students, faculty, and staff. It is viewed as a violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Sexual harassment will not be tolerated at the University of Minnesota, Duluth. For the purpose of this policy, sexual harassment is defined as follows:

Unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic advancement, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions or academic decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or academic environment.

It is the responsibility of everyone within the University community to uphold the requirements of Title VII and other laws prohibiting sexual harassment and/or sexual violence. The academic and working environment of the University must be kept free of these negative influences. Sexual violence is an extreme form of sexual harassment involving physical violence against an individual. Justice requires that the rights and concerns of both complainant and respondent be fully assured. The University shall make every effort to assure and protect these rights, and shall undertake no action that threatens or compromises them.

In determining whether alleged conduct constitutes sexual harassment, those entrusted with carrying out this policy will look at the record as a whole and at the totality of the circumstances, such as the nature of the sexual advances and the context in which the alleged incidents occurred. The outcome of the investigation will be based on an evaluation of the facts on a case-by-case basis.
