In her lecture, “Making Peace with the Earth,” Dr. Shiva will be making the argument that wars against the earth become wars against people, and that sustainable use of resources is the way toward peace and justice.

Dr. Shiva is the foremost ecofeminist scholar and activist in the world. Trained as a physicist, she received her PhD in Philosophy of Science from the University of Western Ontario, Canada. She is the author of more than 20 books, including Staying Alive; Ecofeminism; Soil not Oil; Earth Democracy: Justice, Sustainability, and Peace; and her most recent Making Peace with the Earth. She is the founder of Navdanya, a national movement in India to promote the protection of native seed, organic farming, and fair trade practices. She is the recipient of numerous prestigious awards, including the Right Livelihood Award: “The Alternative Nobel Prize.”

This event is free and open to the public.
