If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact us.

We have received information from the U.S. Department of Education that you are in default status on a Title IV educational loan or owe a Title IV refund for overpayment. If you are in default status on a Title IV educational loan or owe a Title IV refund, you are not eligible to receive any financial aid.

Title IV programs include:

Loans

- Federal Stafford Loan
- Federal Supplemental Loan for Students
- National Direct Student Loan
- Federal Perkins Loan
- William D. Ford Direct Stafford Loan

If you have recently resolved your default status, please contact the holder of the loan(s) (guaranty agency or U.S. Department of Education). They need to provide written documentation to UMD stating that your default status has been cleared.

To determine which agency holds your defaulted loan(s), you may call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-433-3243 or access this information on the Web at <http://www.ed.gov/offices/OSFAP/DCS/index.html>.

Entitlement programs

- Basic Educational Opportunity Grant
- Federal Pell Grant
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant

If you have recently repaid a Title IV refund, please contact the school that collected the repayment. They need to provide written documentation to UMD stating that you no longer owe a Title IV refund.

Please respond immediately.

Provide documentation that your Title IV default or overpayment has been cleared. A hold will remain on your financial aid file until all necessary documentation is received by the Office of Financial Aid and Registrar.
