ADVISEMENT: SPANISH B.A.
Dept. Foreign Languages and Literatures, College of Liberal Arts

Spanish BA:

- Beginning I, II (or equivalent)
- Intermediate I, II (or equivalent)
- Span 2301: Advanced Spanish (obligatory)
- 23 upper division credits of Spanish (upper division = 3xx or 4xxx level classes; two courses must be taken in the Dept. of Foreign Languages and Literatures)
- Successful completion of the oral proficiency interview

What is the difference between a Spanish major and a minor?

- Eleven (11) upper division credits (i.e. three classes in the department)
- The oral proficiency interview

How do you declare a Spanish major?

If you have not declared any major or if you wish to declare a second major in the College of Liberal Arts (CLA):

- Prepare a grad plan through graduation planner
- Meet with Department Head Maureen Tobin Stanley
- Spend five minutes filling out the electronic form with Prof. Tobin Stanley

If you have already declared a major in another college (CEHSP, SCSE, LSBE, Fine Arts):

- Fill out the appropriate form (“Additional Undergraduate Degree Program Application”)
- Turn in the completed form to your collegiate Student Affairs Office

Study Abroad:

What courses transfer back to UMD?

- Spanish language abroad
- Literature of the Spanish-speaking world (taught in Spanish)
- Culture of the Spanish-speaking world (taught in Spanish)

What should you do before studying abroad?

- Meet with your advisor
- Apply for scholarships
- Check with the registrar regarding financial aid et al.