Rocinante is the name of Don Quixote’s horse. The hope for the scholarship is that, just as Rocinante led Don Quixote on his life’s quest, so shall this scholarship be a tool for University of Minnesota Duluth (UMD) international students to grab their education “by the reins” and follow their own educational quest.

Award: Minimum of $1,000.00

Eligibility Requirements:
- Be a full-time student (undergraduate or graduate) at the University of Minnesota Duluth
- Studying towards a degree in the areas of Economics, Math, Medicine, Engineering, the Sciences, or Music
- Be in lawful status in the U.S. on a temporary student Visa
- Demonstrate academic merit with a preference for a minimum GPA of 3.25 or higher
- Demonstrate financial need
- Note: preference will be given for students who will contribute to student body diversity. In evaluating student body diversity, a plus factor will be given to female students if they are underrepresented in the University, or in the applicable major or program at the time of the award.

To Apply:
- Include application form located in the second page of this document
- Attach a personal statement including current sources of funding, financial need, and university-level academic achievements (ex: dean’s list, undergraduate research)
- Attach a copy of your unofficial UMD transcript
- Send all three (3) documents listed above to intserv@d.umn.edu as PDF files.

Only complete applications will be considered.

Applications will be due by 09/21/2016.

The amount of funds available for the 2016-2017 school year is a minimum of $1,000.00
