

University of Minnesota Duluth Psychology
and Education Departments present:

Community Connections: A Dialogue

We invite you to participate in a gathering to foster collaborations between university faculty and community professionals around the issues of healthy child and family development and community support.

Date: Friday Feb 2, 2007

Time: 9:00 am – 12:00pm

Location: UMD Kirby Rafters (Third Floor)

Schedule:

9:00-10:30am: Keynote address by Dr. Martha Erickson titled: “Raising Resilient Children in a Risky World: A Call for University-Community Action”

Break: Refreshments will be provided

10:40-11:30am: Community and University presentations

11:30-12:00pm: Dr. Erickson’s wrap up and discussion of future community university collaborations

For more information contact: Rae Ann Johnson (218) 726-7117

* Parking available in pay lot off of St. Marie Street

Marti Erickson: director of the Harris Programs in the U of M’s Center for Early Education and Development and co-chair of the President’s Initiative on Children, Youth & Families. Dr. Erickson specializes in linking research, practice and policy in the areas of parent-child attachment, child abuse prevention, and children’s mental health.

