As a TeamLead RockStar, you will be trained to work as leader of RockStars and be an integral part of the BWW team. You will help with RockStar selection, planning, training, connecting the RockStars to the curriculum over the summer, and being a significant presence in multiple capacities during the event week.

Duties of the TeamLead:
- Assist in the selection of RockStars for BWW 2018
- Assist in the planning and execution of training for RockStars
- Learn and participate in the second level of training for the Student Leadership Challenge model
- Act as role models to your peers and as liaisons for the Office for Students in Transition
- Facilitate the Canvas for a group of RockStars over the summer months prior to Fall semester
- Providing leadership and direction for a group of 12-20 new first year or transfer students
- Facilitating discussions on Welcome Week topics (academic, social, and personal success)
- Encouraging interactions within the small group and facilitating social connections.
- Assisting with other Welcome Week program components, including directing students to activities, participating in activities, and helping with on-campus move-in
- Be a bold and friendly presence with individual students and in small groups, with fellow peer leaders, and with faculty/staff.

Qualifications for the Position:
- Have acted as a RockStar for at least one year prior to fall 2018.
- Have knowledge of UMD resources (academic, social and personal) for first year or transfer students.
- Be able to lead discussions of 12-20 new incoming students on topics such as academic success, social connection, personal awareness, behaviors of successful students, and UMD resources.
- Be hard working, enthusiastic, and sensitive to students who face many new experiences.
- Have a desire to help new students with their transition into the University community.
- Be able to represent UMD from a positive and realistic perspective.
- Have attended UMD for at least one full year (two semesters) and be a full-time undergraduate student in the fall 2018 semester.
- Have a UMD grade point average of 2.5 or above.
- Must be in good standing with the University; some prior conduct violations may prevent you from serving in this position.
You must be available (mandatory) for the following:

- TeamLead training on Sunday, March 25th from 12:30pm – 6:30pm
- RockStar training on Sunday, April 22nd from 12:30pm – 6:00pm
- Over the summer, you must be available with regular access to the Internet to facilitate the summer Canvas module.
- All training sessions on *Saturday August 18 (9am-6pm), *Sunday, August 19 (9am-5pm) & Monday, August 20 (9am-5pm) *times may adjust, but you should prepare to not be available for anything else during these days
- Bulldog Welcome Week which runs Tuesday, August 21 through Saturday August 25 (Hours will vary daily from approximately 7:00am to 12:00 am).

Compensation and Coursework:

- This position provides a terrific opportunity for leadership development and professional growth.
- While this is first and foremost a leadership opportunity, you will receive compensation for your work with Bulldog Welcome Week.
- If accepted for this position, you will be required to register for a 1-credit leadership course and complete the course requirements which include leading discussions over a Canvas course site.
  - Your compensation will include a scholarship that will cover the course tuition and fees.
  - The course is offered in summer-session; work on the Canvas site begins in June, but in-person attendance doesn’t begin until August 18th and continues through the end of Bulldog Welcome Week.
- You will also receive a $150.00 stipend and meals during the BWW program itself

This position is offered through the Office for Students in Transition located in 42 Solon Campus Center. If you have any questions, please email sit-info@d.umn.edu or call 218-726-6393
