Tweed museum of art

50

ART and ENVIRONMENT

activity 27

university of minnesota duluth
www.d.umn.edu/tma/
Homer Dodge Martin was a part of a group of American artists known as the Hudson River School, named after the area in New York state where they often painted. These artists created light-filled panoramic paintings of their environment.

Look closely at the space you see created by this work of art.

Does it remind you of a place you have visited?
Create your own drawing of Autumn in Duluth. Add colors with colored pencils. Try to blend the colors to create an atmospheric landscape.