Charles Burchfield painted the landscape found right outside his bedroom window in Buffalo, New York.

Burchfield had many different jobs during his lifetime other than making art. He was once in the army and another time he was employed designing wallpaper.
Draw what you see from a window in your home.
What made you decide which window to draw from?
What part of the environment did you include in your drawing?