

WINDOWS SHARON LOUDEN

“LIVING AND SUSTAINING A CREATIVE LIFE”: A CONVERSATION AND WORKSHOP WITH ARTIST SHARON LOUDEN

Artist as Entrepreneur Workshop with artist and editor Sharon Louden

November 21st, 2015

2:00 – 5:00 pm

Tweed Museum of Art

“Living and Sustaining a Creative Life” conversation and workshop will explore keys, ideas, and ways in which artists live and sustain their creative lives today. Sharon Louden will give an introduction to the book as well as share tools, perspectives, and essential ways to succeed as a professional working artist. Throughout the workshop, Louden will entertain your concerns and questions. This is a great workshop for any age.

2:00 - 2:30 pm - Reception with light refreshments in the Main Gallery (main level)

2:30 - 4:30 pm - “Living and Sustaining a Creative Life” conversation and workshop by artist Sharon Louden

4:30 - 5:00 pm - everyone gathers again in the Main Gallery for light refreshments and visit with the artist, and book signing by the artist.

This event is free and open to the public and students, but it is limited to first 35 registrants. Please be at the workshop on-time.

To register, contact Christine Strom at cstrom@d.umn.edu

Tweed Museum of Art
Art for Every Age