

Summary Form -- Human Development

Name: _____ Stage of Development: _____

1. What changes typically occur during this stage of development?

physical/biosocial?

cognitive?

psychosocial?

2. What issues are associated with this stage of development ?

needs characteristic of this stage?

potential problems associated with this stage?

positive outcomes desired for this age group?

3. How do differences of gender, race, and social class affect this age group?

4. What can be done to promote healthy development (help meet needs, prevent and address potential problems, and promote positive outcomes) for this age group?

by small social systems (individuals, families, small groups)?

by larger social systems (organizations, communities, society)?

by you as a professional?