

SW 8441 Class Presentation of Case Analysis

Names of Group Members:	Score (1-5 scale) Comments
Brief descriptions of the presenting problem and of the relevant cultural characteristics of the worker and the client
An overview of the primary components of treatment approach
An explanation for why the approach chosen was most appropriate for addressing the presenting problem
Description of the context of the role play that you're going to do (including an overview of what transpired in previous sessions that includes at least 3 distinct assessment and/or interventions associated with the approach and an explanation of at least 1 example of cultural competence
A description the interventions and/or skills that you are going to be demonstrate in the role play
A two-person role play, with one "observer", that illustrates at least 1 distinct intervention associated with the approach, as well as good interviewing techniques (with the latter including both verbal and communication that demonstrates being closely "in tune" with the client)
Descriptions from the role play's "client", "worker", and "observer" of what they experienced—both subjectively and objectively--in participating in or observing the role play
Discussion of what each of the presenters "most" and "least" liked about the approach
A class discussion facilitated by the three presenters that includes an opportunity for class questions and feedback about the approach and the presentation

Scoring: 1=poor, 2=below expectations 3=average,4=very good,5=excellent