Canvas “Modules”

When you have had a chance, check out your Canvas folder at <http://canvas.umn.edu/> and your “Modules” file.

From your “Home Page”, the first  canvas page you see when you open your Canvas folder, click on the Modules feature to start out . . .

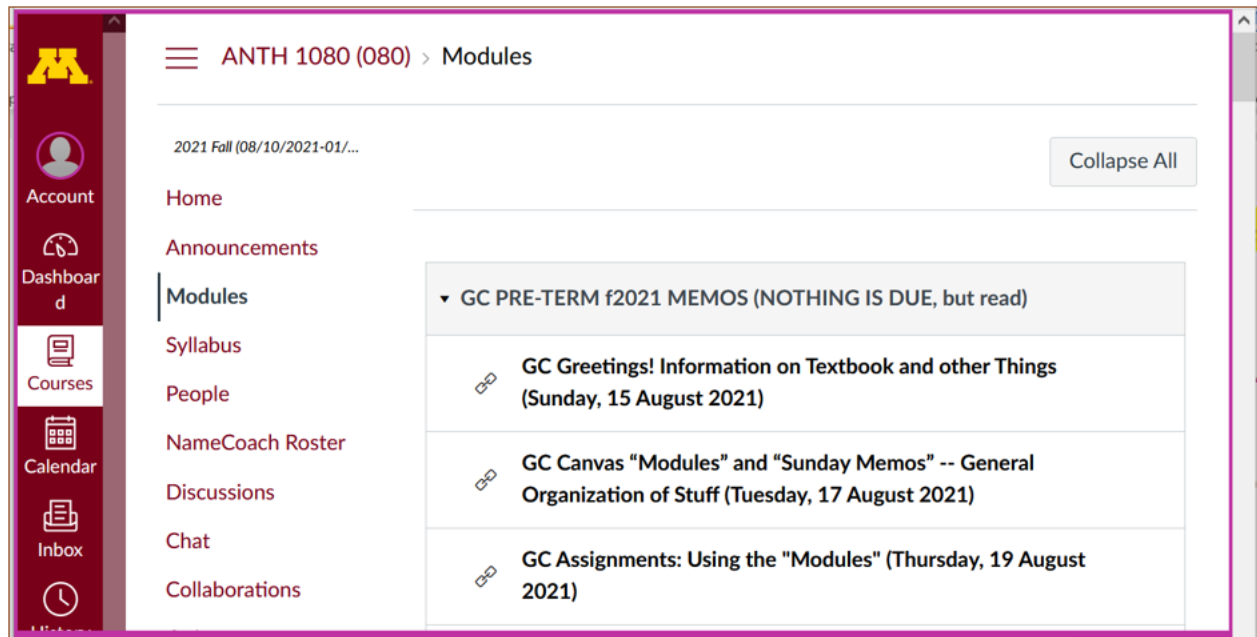

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

. . . and that will take you to the Modules folder, which looks something like this . . .

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

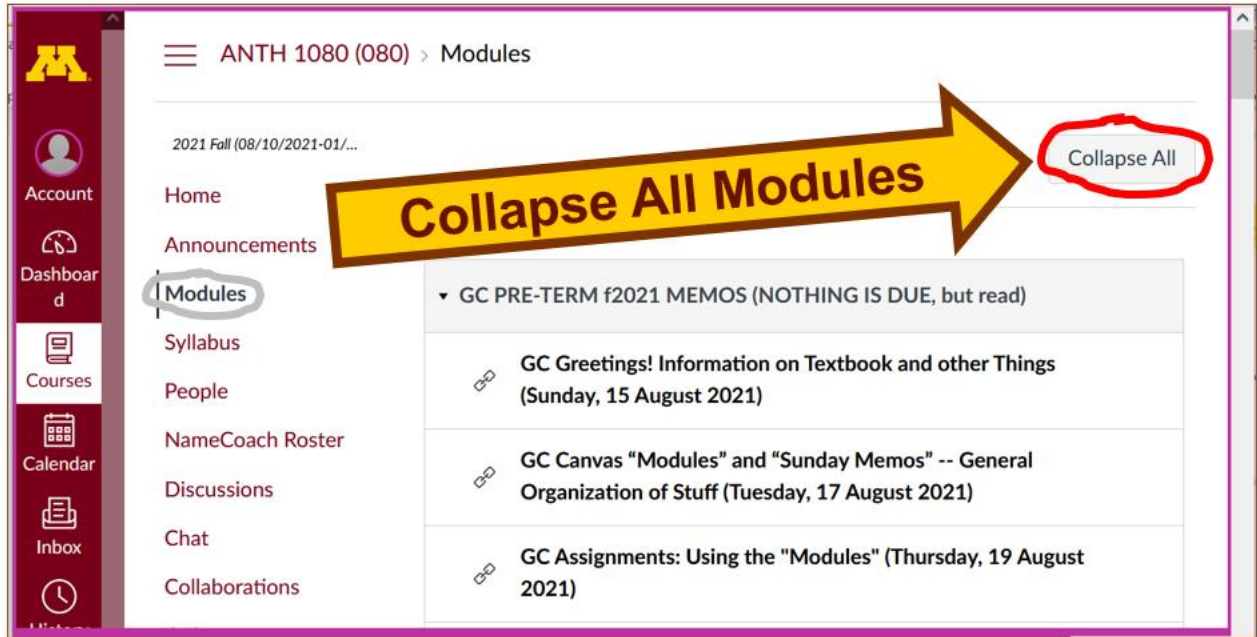

First thing to do when you go into the “Modules” file is to click on the “Collapse All” button in the upper right-hand corner.

That de-clutters your screen . . .

Collapse your Modules each time you sign on.
It will make your life much easier!
(Trust me.)

(Sorry; Canvas does not permit instructors to set the default to open with all modules closed.)

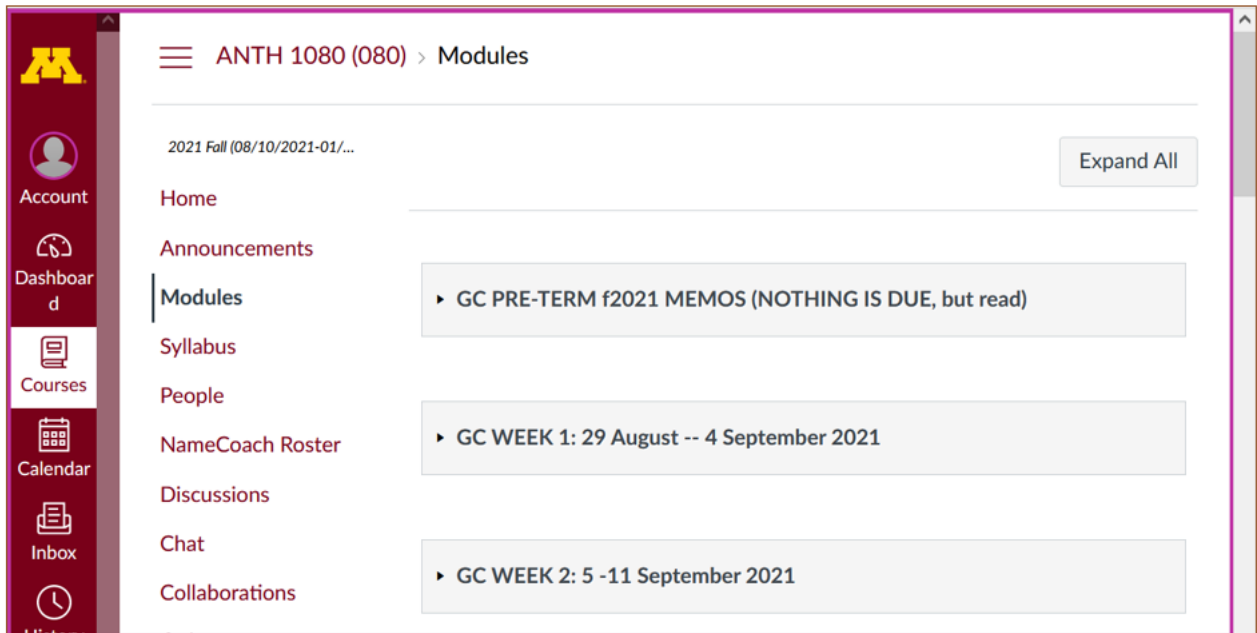

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

And your de-cluttered Modules page will look like this . . .

If it is closed, open Week 1 Module . . .

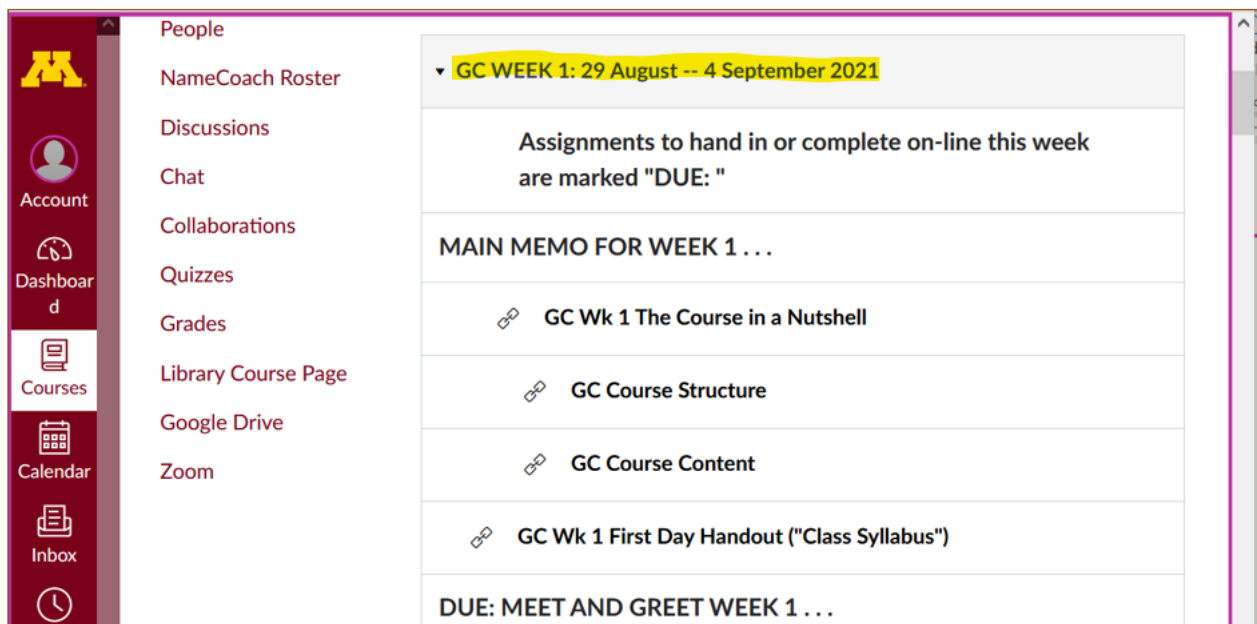

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

The Week 1 Module will look like this . . .

“Sunday Memos”

Your “Sunday Memos” arrive by e-mail, and they are featured in the “Announcements” sections each week at the top of your Canvas “Home Page”.

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

Both the Canvas Modules and the “Sunday Memos” . . . follow the same basic Course Outline.

(The first two weeks there is always a lot of information; after that it’s not so bad.)
