What's Happening Week 3?

This week we meet the happiest people in the world . . . in Finland and Denmark—two SCANDINAVIAN EGALITARIAN CULTURES we'll see more of next week. And, in a way, we continue the focus on emigration and immigration . . .

- emigration
 - leaving one's home or homeland with the intent to settle elsewhere
- immigration
 - entering into a country or territory not of one's birth or citizenship for the purpose of taking up permanent residence or to secure temporary employment

As mentioned last week, worldwide questions of emigration and immigration are among key interests for governments and individuals. Opposition to particular immigrant groups, and immigration in general, has become a major issue in both local and world politics today, perhaps second only to the climate change crisis, COVID-19 and "globalization," as a driver of both informed and uninformed discourse, and cognizant and unapprised government policy and debate. And the on-going war in the Ukraine has severely amplified the problem. ("Which European countries attract the most immigrants?" swissinfo.ch, 5 December 2017).

PROJECT INFORMATION . . .

Basic Information ↗
Main Due Dates ↗

Start thinking a little bit about your Class Project. ↗

Start thinking about something that you, personally, are interested in, and we'll work things out from there.
This Project is something with which you should be able to have fun.

It's a good time to have at least a quick look at the information for your class project. ↗

Your class Project is your Term Paper, plus a short “work-in-progress” presentation.

Your Informal Project Statement🔗, or Project Proposal, is due by the end of Week 5, Sunday, 29 September 2024. Basically that's a short informal summary personal statement of what you are interested in doing, how you think you might go about it, and what resources you are thinking about using. It can be as simple as the following:

“For my project I’m thinking about X, or Y, and these are the items I’m thinking about using [add short list]. This is why I’m interested in this/these project(s) [add your reason(s)]. . . .

It is an informal statement. A more formal statement will come later on (in Week 7, Sunday, 13 October 2024).
