What's Happening Week 4?

This week we check on the news, chat live, and explore the world of the Aatsinki family of Sami Cowboys of Finland. And the readings focus on Finland, using “The Finnish Sauna” as its metaphor.

Your informal Project proposal is due next week. It's actually pretty simple; basically, you just need to let me know what you're thinking about, and what sorts of resources you think might be useful to you.

Details on the Project are at <https://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth1095/gcproject.html#title>.

Details on the informal Proposal are at

Our dessert this week is a serving of Häagen-Dazs. And we'll have a little ketchup with that ice cream.

Aatsinki: The Story of Arctic Cowboys

"Brothers Aarne and Lasse Aatsinki are cowboys of the Arctic. Quiet but good natured, dare-devilish but humble, rugged but gentle, and exceptionally knowledgeable when it comes to their little slice of wilderness. The brothers, along with their wives and children, live well north of the Arctic Circle in Finnish Lapland, where they are the leaders of a collective of traditional reindeer herders who manage the last group of wild reindeer in all of Finland. Aatsinki follows the family for the span of one year, quietly observing their seasonal routines and the difficulties and joys of a life so closely tied to the land. Though, on the surface, Aatsinki is the story of a single family, its underlying narrative is one of global consequences and connections. Between their uncanny understanding of the landscape and their reindeer on the one hand, and their heavy reliance on snowmobiles and helicopters on the other, the herders have been categorized as beacons of sustainability and demons of environmentalism—in essence, poster children for simplicity and technology alike."
