General Comments for the Week

Kypseli that we saw last week is one of the great “Master Texts” of Europe (and beyond), and this week we continue our review of Master Texts of Europe with work of anthropologist Peter Loizos. We’ll have a look at his film of his own Greek family in the village of Aargaki, Cyprus.

In brief, a “Master Text” is a work (video or print item or research technique or theoretical approach) that helped set the stage for what came later and which in one or more ways influenced the development of a discipline or sub-discipline. We’ll have a closer look at what “master texts” are later in the semester, in Week 6, after we have had a chance to look at a couple more. But in the meantime, . . .

QUESTION to ask yourself: How are the "Master Texts" relevant to today's Anthropology of Europe?

Continuing our mini-series on comparative analyses of Greek villages
we'll have a look at Peter Loizos' family in Argaki, another Greek village.

Peter Loizos' work, in addition to Life Chances, includes "master texts" . . .

As we continue the Kypseli-Vasilika-Argaki series, augmented with information from the Village of Karpofora (and eventually other villages in Ireland, England, Scotland, and Hungary), and even Greek-Americans in Duluth, ask yourself a set of questions:

- How are they Greek? [or Irish, or English, Scottish, or Hungarian?]
- How are they villages?
- How are they "peasant communities"?
- How are they "island communities"?
- How are they part of larger social/cultural systems?

- How are they representative of larger social/cultural systems?
- How are the "Master Texts" relevant to today's Anthropology of Europe?

One of the Main Characteristics of Anthropology is comparative methods as major approaches to the study of human behavior development and structure

- REM: Comparison / Contrast from the suggested writing/development strategies and the discussion of Kypseli: Women and Men apart -- a Divided Reality
- Note how things are the same and how they are different
- In the Kypseli case, a logical intravillage comparison / contrast would be with / between "The Divided Reality" of the women's world and the men's world.

	Women		Men
Item # 1	similar	different	similar	different
Item # 2	similar	different	similar	different
Item # 3	similar	different	similar	different
Item # 4	similar	different	similar	different
Item # N	similar	different	similar	different

- As you go along Compare / Contrast . . .
 - Kypseli

- Vasilika
- [Life Chances in \[Argaki\]](#)
- Discussions of Greek Villages and Greek Ethnology/Ethnography in class, including . . .
- Greek-Americans in Duluth

AE Start/Continue Thinking about Your Semester Project. Your Class Research Project = (1) Presentation + (2) Term Paper

This week we'll also explore class projects a little bit.

For your Class Project, start with something that you, personally, are interested in, and we'll work things out from there.

This Project is something with which you should be able to have fun.

It's a good time to have at least a quick look at the information for your class project, which you can find at <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anth3635/ceproject.html#title>. Your class Project is your Term Paper, plus a short “work-in-progress” Presentation.

Demosthenes Practising Oratory (1870)

Details of Presentation

Charles Dickens (1842)

Details of Term Paper

Your Informal Project Statement, or Project Proposal, is due by the end of Week 5, Saturday, 12 February 2022. Basically that's a short informal summary personal statement of what you are interested in doing, how you think you might go about it, and what resources you are thinking about using. It can be as simple as the following:

“For my project I’m thinking about X, or Y, and these are the items I’m thinking about using [add short list]. This is why I’m interested in this/these project(s) [add your reason(s)]. . . .

It is an informal statement. A more formal statement will come later on (in Week 7, Saturday, 26 February 2022).

(optional) FOR FUN TRIVIA . . .

(optional) “What does "Häagen-Dazs" mean?”

1. "Happy Days"

2. "High Life"
3. "Danish Delight"
4. It's a Family Name
5. Absolutely Nothing
