Review: Videos for the Semester

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anthfood/afvic>. The main heading is "Video Schedule for Anthropology of Food". Below this are four links: readings schedule, slides schedule, main due dates, and Spring 2022 calendar. A paragraph asks, "Looking for other videos for your term Project? Use the UMD Library Guide to Streaming Videos". Below that is a list of weeks from 1 to 16, with week 16 marked as the current week. A red note states: "NOTE: Some Video Offerings are Currently being Re-negotiated with Providers". At the bottom, it says "For other full-length Feature Films see Food Films Filmography" and "See Food Films for other films qualifying for Extra Credit Reviews".

Course Survey
(from ITSS)

If you haven't already done so, please take time to step back and reflect on the semester, and make some suggestions for next time around. We ask you to reflect on the course itself, and tell us what you think by evaluating the course and its parts. Please take time to respond. Your responses are very useful and helpful to us, and to the operations of the Department and University. We look to you for suggestions for improvement in the future, and various administrators look to and at the results for program and performance evaluations and for the future planning of course offerings. Course evaluations are one of the few places where you can have a real influence on how the University operates in the future.

The Information Technology Systems & Services (ITSS) sent you an Invitation to Participate in an Online Course Evaluation.

Evaluations are important to me, the Department Head, and the Dean, as well as everyone in our Department.

Please fill the online Course Evaluation out carefully.

Evaluations are anonymous, and will not be seen by the instructor until final grades for this course have been recorded.

Thanks,

Tim Roufs

FINAL EXAM . . .

Reviewing for the Final Exam . . .

The Final Exam will be as described, and like the Midterm exam, it is “open-book/open-notes” There should be no surprises. The cut-to-the-chase bottom line of the exam. . .

The Anthropology of Food Final Exam will be available next week, from 12:01 a.m. Monday to 11:59 p.m. Friday, 2-6 May 2022

You may take the exam any time during Final Exam “week”.

Other details on the Final Exam are at http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anthfood/afexams_final.html#title.

On the Final Exam you must answer the four (4) questions on the final randomly generated by  canvas from the pool of questions put together from the study questions on the annotated Week 14 Discussion. Each question is worth up to 100 points.

They may include . . .

- A current affairs question
- And questions made up from the Study Questions in the Final Exam Question Wiki, which you can find at Week 14  canvas. Use the Annotated Contributed Question List from Week 14 as a Study Guide. Be sure to note my comments and other additions.

One good way to review is to go back over the introductory parts of the “What’s Happening?” weekly memos, and use them as study notes for the Final Exam. You can find all of them listed under “Announcements” in your Canvas folder.
