Anthropology of Food

Have a look around and see what we do in the Anthropology of Food class. Information is available on-line via <http://canvas.umn.edu/> and on the class WebPage <http://www.d.umn.edu/cla/faculty/troufs/anthfood/index.html#title>. Information there includes materials on . . .

The Course in a Nutshell

Textbooks
Interest in food has never been greater. You can see that in the news and editorial pages of the weekly papers and the other news media.

Lots of things are happening on the food front . . . virtually every day.

Some of the best sources for up-to-date news on food include
What FoodAnthro is Reading Now . . . and Marion [no-relation-to-the-company] Nestle’s Food Politics Blog. The New York Times Food Section, BBC Food, National Geographic > Food, and MPRNews > Food regularly carry interesting and important articles on food around the world.

Anthropology of Food will be a great course, and a great experience. Sign up and you will see. . . .

I am looking forward to “meeting” you in class as you start your on-line journey into the wide world of food. In the meantime, you might want to peruse the information in your canvas folder at <http://canvas.umn.edu/>. The Canvas Student Guide / Overview / Tour can be very helpful.
