Gary Hoefs

14 N. 17th Ave. E., Duluth, MN 55812
(218) 730-0497 – hoef0049@d.umn.edu

OBJECTIVE   A summer internship in information technology. Interests include C++ programming, technical writing, web design.

EDUCATION   University of Minnesota Duluth   2000 – present
University of Alaska Anchorage   1998 – 2000
Major: Computer Science   Minor: Information Design
Class Status: Junior   Cumulative GPA: 3.61
Coursework: C and C++ programming, technical writing, advanced math, physics, chemistry, and graphic design
Named to Dean's List four times.

EXPERIENCE   UMD Info. Tech. Systems & Services, Duluth, MN
Lab Consultant, 2000 – present
Responsible for monitoring computer labs and assisting clients with hardware, software, and printing problems. Platforms include Windows NT, MacOS, and Sun Solaris.

Anchorage School District, Anchorage, AK
Driver, 1998 – 2000
Transported elementary & secondary students to & from school daily. Drove overnight charter trips per demand.
Two safe driving awards; letter of commendation.

Halliburton Energy Services, Prudhoe Bay, AK
Wireline Technician, 1996 – 1998
Performed preventive and remedial maintenance on petroleum wells. Operated truck-mounted crane.
Health, Safety, and Environment award.

Minnesota Dept. of Transportation, South St. Paul, MN
Motor Carrier Specialist, 1990 – 1995
 Enforced laws pertaining to the motor carrier industry. Performed audits of corporate safety records. Hosted educational seminars on safety regulations. Letter of commendation from the Commissioner of Transportation.