

Field Interpretive Methods II

Some of the trees of Northern Minnesota that you should be able to I.D. by sight and be able to explain your identification reasons:

- speckled alder
- black ash
- green ash
- paper birch
- yellow birch
- northern white cedar
- red-osier dogwood (a shrub)
- balsam fir
- tamarack
- moose/mountain maple
- sugar maple
- northern red oak
- balsam poplar
- quaking aspen
- red pine
- white pine
- jack pine
- scotch/scots pine
- black spruce
- white spruce
- staghorn sumac
- willow species